

Mark Dietrich

Lancaster, PA 17601 | (717) 669-6666 | MarkADietr@gmail.com

Summary

Adept at enhancing team projects and success coding demanding proposals. Talented programmer and practical problem solver with expertise in front end development, and critical thinking.

Experience

Programmer - Greiner Industries (2019-Present)

Develop, read, and edit code for multiple different machines, Including complex 5-axis code to ensure part quality and operator comprehension.

5-axis Water Jet Operator/Programmer - Greiner Industries (2014 – 2019)

Operation of large scale 5-axis waterjet. Reading and editing code on the fly to meet customer demands. Experience cutting largescale government projects to a high degree of accuracy (+/- 0.005).

Water Jet Operator - M.H. Eby (2011-2014)

Execute safe operations of CNC machines. Maintenance of water jet core components.

Host - Applebee's (2009-2010)

- Team management. Overseer of seating.

Education

Codecademy - Jan 2022-Present

- Front End Engineer Course (completed Nov 15th 2022)

Cocalico High School, Denver, PA (Graduated June 2010)

GitHub

- <https://github.com/Solon1te>

Skills

- | | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• HTML• CSS• JavaScript• React/Redux• Git/GitHub | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Analytically Minded• Verbal/Written Communication• Strong Work Ethic• Team Focused• Passion For Learning |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Volunteer Work

Adamstown Community Days

I volunteer for this event multiple times a year. It is a great community event with the goal of creating a stronger community, and honoring soldiers for protecting our freedom.